

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3005 - SB 3044

February 20, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the juvenile judge to suspend driving privileges of a juvenile who violate the tobacco product possession prohibition the second or subsequent time until such juvenile has paid the fine in full and completed the required community service work.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $5,000 One-Time

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Less than $100,000

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes additional costs for juvenile courts to monitor and report suspension and reinstatement of driving privileges to the Department of Safety and additional costs for the Department of Safety for information system changes to issue suspension notices. For the year 2000, there were in excess of 4,500 referrals disposed of in juvenile courts for tobacco product possession, which does not include citations, issued by some urban counties.
